tary Foster Thinks the Amount Presented Entirely Satisfactory.

WASHINGTON. Sept. 1.—The amount of 4½ per cent. bonds continued at 2 per cent. yesterday was $481,850, making a total to date of $23,231,850. This eaves about $37,000,000 outstanding. It is impossible at present, however, to make any definite estimate as to the amount of these that will be presented for redemption, as the time within which they may be continued at 3 per cent is to be extended to a period not vet fixed. Secretary Foster said that he thought that between $20,000,000 and $25,000,-000 4½ per cents would be presented for redemption. This would be en-tirely satisfactory to the department, as it would force that much money in-to circulation at a time when there was great need of it in moving crops. The disbursement of this sum of money would not embarrass the treasury de-000 gold reserve. He said that a circular would be issued extending the time for continuing the bonds.

Alaskan Natives Dying Off.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 1.—Census Agent Petroff has returned from Alaska, having completed the census of that territory. The following figures closely represent the population in 1890: Aleuts, 900; Indians, 5,000; Esquimaux, 5,000; Chinese, 2,300; whites, 4,800; total, 31,000. This is a decrease of 2,000 in ten years, but as during that time the white and Chinese population has increased largely, this really represents a decrease of 8,000 in native population. Mr. Petroff says the natives have learned the ase of liquors from the whalers, and it is killing them off rapidly.

rices as follows: VALPARAISO, Chili, Aug. 30.—The Chaneral regiment of the congressional army took formal possession of Santi-ago last night, and practically the last act in the bloody drama of revolution which has torn Chili to pieces for the past seven months is closed. As soon as the news reached Santi ago of the overwhelming defeat of the government troops on the heights of Placilla and the fall of Valparaiso, and the people knew that Balmaceda's power was gone and they had nothing to fear from his wrath, their enmity to his government broke forth.

The cry was raised that the preside should be killed, and a mob started for his house. It grew in numbers and fury as it went through the streets and by the time it reached the executive nansion was ripe for any deed. Short shrift would have been allowed to the president had he been caught, but the bloodthirsty fury of the mob was Then the mob, started for revenge found vent in the application of the torch. Soon Balmaceda's house was a mass of flames. Before it had been de stroyed the mob marched off to the home of Senor Goday, the ex-minister of the interior and an ardent Balmacedist, and fired his place.

Then the residences of Balmaceda's mother, Gen. Barabos, who was killed at the battle of Placilla, Senors Mc-Kenna and Eastman, the governmen newspaper offices and the houses of several prominent officials were burned to the ground. Comparative order has at last been restored in this city. It took strong measures to do it. In 1840, during the time of his residence in New York, he heard Alvin Stewart speak on the subject of slavery, and, deeply impressed with his eloquence, became a ready convert to antislavery principles and began to labor to promote them. He lectured in schools and preached from house to house. Annually for sight years he was on the nually for eight years he was on the anti-slavery ticket for the Massachu-setts legislature, but was unsuccessful until 1852, when he was elected over

Mr. Pomeroy, numbering two dred, started west from Boston. Amid the disturbance and viole the year 1856 Mr. Pomeroy was in the thickest of the fray. In 1857 his political career began with the Lecompton constitution. About this time he was elected mayor of Atchison. He was conspicuous in the organization of the territorial government and participated in the free state convention that met at Lawrence in 1859. During the famine in Kansas in 1861 he was president of the relief committee. Mr. Pomeroy was a delegate to the national republican conventions of 1856 and 1860. He was elected as a republican to the United States senate in 1861 and re-elected in 1867. He was a candidate for a third term in 1873, when the charges of bribery were presented by Col. York. For many years there-after he made Washington his place of
